

July Business Break at the Stockyard in Hopewell

More than 100 chamber members and friends gathered at the newly renovated Stockyard Restaurant in Hopewell Junction for the July Business Break. The event was sponsored by Tony D'Aquanni of Money Mailer and Scott Pawenski of Embroid Me.

Money Mailer of Dutchess County is a quality leader in the direct mail industry with the goal of "helping businesses get and keep more customers and to help consumers save money every day."

Embroid Me provides custom clothing, accessories and promotional items throughout the Hudson Valley and beyond. Their store has hundreds of name brand products waiting to be customized for your company, school, religious group, club, team, civic organization, etc., or even a special gift item.

Newlyweds Matt and Amy Chernay, Duality Inc.

Scott Sweeney (left), Marshall & Sterling, with Assemblyman Marc Molinaro.

Left: Sponsors Tony D'Aquanni (left) of Money Mailer and Scott Pawenski of Embroid Me.

Thank you to Tony and Scott for their ongoing support of the Chamber and the community as well.

Get Noticed!

